

Dear Parents,

Thank you for your understanding regarding the school closure this morning and apologies for any inconvenience this may have caused. We are hoping to open the school tomorrow, but this is subject to change depending on the weather overnight.

To ensure the safety of the children, please consider the following for tomorrow:

- Plan your journey carefully, you may want to give yourself more time to travel into school;
- Please wear sensible footwear - wellies are totally acceptable and please take extra time for any walking needed as outside roads will be very slippery when the snow turns to ice;
- Only carry essentials into school.

All being well tomorrow, we have rearranged some of our events this week. Here is an updated list of events:
